

Substitute Teacher: Early Childhood Education (ECE)

Why You'll Love This Role

- Choose when you work — pick up shifts that fit your schedule
- Choose where you work — accept jobs at locations you prefer
- Perfect for part-time flexibility — great for students, recent grads, caregivers, or retirees
- No minimum hours required — work a little or a lot, it's up to you
- Make a difference — support local childcare programs and help kids thrive
- Competitive hourly pay — know exactly what you'll earn for every shift

Job Overview

The JAM Team Foundation is seeking ECE substitute teachers for their ChildCareMatters program. Teachers will provide planned and emergency classroom support in ECE facilities. You'll work with children from birth through school age, stepping in when childcare centers need reliable, caring professionals.

What You'll Do

- Support classroom activities using the facility's curriculum
- Create a safe, nurturing, and engaging environment for children
- Work collaboratively with center staff and leadership
- Assist with daily childcare needs as assigned

What We're Looking For

- High school diploma / GED
- Child Development Associate (CDA) credential or college degree in related field preferred
- Previous ECE experience preferred
- Required:
 - First aid & CPR certifications
 - Physical exam
 - FBI fingerprinting
 - Child abuse clearance
 - State police criminal record check
 - Mandated reporter training
 - Health & safety training
 - NSOR

Important to Know

- Must be comfortable using an online platform to accept shifts
- This is a 1099 independent contractor role – you are responsible for reporting your own earnings to all tax authorities
- No employee benefits are provided